Position Available: First Class Program Coordinator

Colorado Ski County USA (CSCUSA) is the not-for-profit trade association representing twenty-two ski resorts throughout Colorado. Based in downtown Denver, the organization focuses on Marketing, Public Policy and Communications.

The 5th & 6th Grade Passport Programs are an integral part of our trade association. The opportunity to ski or snowboard in Colorado has become a right-of-passage for children living in the state. Every year, the Passport staff process 20,000 applications in house. This year we are launching the First Class Program. The first of its kind in the country, this new program offers 5th graders who have never skied or snowboarded before the opportunity to take a free lesson and learn the state's signature sport.

The Passport Program Coordinator is a seasonal position. The coordinator will be part of a three-person team responsible for the execution of this program. The ideal candidate for this position must possess strong customer service skills and be highly organized.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Work closely with the Pass Program Manager in the launching and execution of the new First Class Program
- Manage inventory of lessons for First Class program
- Answer First Class inquiries from non skiers via phone and email
- Fulfill First Class lesson requests
- Liaise with ski resorts ski school managers
- Assist passport team processing 5th and 6th Grade Passport program applications
- Data entry

Qualifications:

- Strong customer service skills
- Experience dealing with non skiers a plus
- Multi-tasking
- Writing skills
- Proactive, solid analytical skills, detailed oriented
- Resourceful problem solving and follow-up skills
- Ability to meet deadlines
- Knowledge of Microsoft Word and Excel

Compensation and benefits:

- September – January, 30-35 hours a week, Monday-Friday
- $10/hour
- One VIP Pass which allows one day of skiing/snowboarding at each of 21 participating member resorts

How to Apply:

Interested persons who meet the minimum required qualifications should forward their resume and cover letter mentioning the position for which they are applying to:
