Colorado Ski Country USA
Food & Beverage Professional of the Year
Criteria for Nomination

Nominees should be employees that demonstrate the characteristics of creating an outstanding and memorable food and beverage experience in line with Colorado's superior standards of guest service. Is there an individual on your resort's food and beverage team about whom you are constantly receiving compliments from guests? Is an individual responsible for a menu item that is unique to your resort and has garnered a special following? How about a signature cocktail? Perhaps this person is your nominee! Nominees may be a supervisor, chef, line cook, bartender, cashier, wait staff etc.(no directors, please).

Nominees should:

- Promote a welcoming, memorable and overall positive dining experience at your resort
- Consistently meet and exceed Colorado Ski Country's superior guest service standards
- Demonstrate innovative ways of improving the food and beverage experience
- Continually strive to improve his/her skills and training
- Interact well with guests and ski area personnel, and be willing to "go the extra mile" when necessary
- Demonstrate a clear passion for his/her work
- Collaborate with teammates to create a positive and productive work environment
- Be an employee or volunteer at your on-mountain facility, base area or lodging property owned by your resort (this award is not intended to be a community award).
- Be available for a phone interview in early May (date TBD)
- If your nominee is chosen as the Food & Beverage Professional of the year, they will be invited to the Double Diamond Awards Reception on June 4th in Denver, CO. All travel expenses will need to be covered by your ski area.
